A.I.S.A.
American Indian Student Association
George Warren Brown School of Social Work

Our Mission

AISA is a student-led group of Native and non-Native students who are committed to learning, preserving, and sharing the cultures of American Indian, Alaska Native, and other indigenous communities. We seek to provide a safe and supportive environment for members to explore cultural identity while advocating for diversity within the Brown School as well as the larger St. Louis community.

Events: AISA hosts, co-sponsors, and plans a variety of events throughout the school year. Some recent events include:

- Insider tour of Native art collections at SLAM
- Film Screenings & Discussion
- Indigenous Peoples Day
- Cahokia Mounds Cleanup
- Partnerships with tribal nations
- Native American policy discussions
- Sponsor WUSTL Pow Wow
- TGIT
- Storytelling event
